

CSIS invites you to attend

Biometrics for Security and Counterterrorism

There has been increased attention in recent weeks on the use of biometric data for security and counterterrorism. Please join us on July 17, 2008 as representatives from DOD, DHS, and OSTP discuss the challenges involved in U.S. government use of biometric data for counter-terrorism and homeland security. This event will also include a panel discussion with government and private sector experts.

Confirmed speakers include:

- Duane Blackburn, Office of Science and Technology Policy
- Ben Riley, Director, Rapid Reaction Technology Office, DOD
- Thomas Dee, Director, Defense Biometrics, OSD AT&L, DOD
- Robert A. Mocny, Director, US-VISIT
- Patricia Cogswell, Associate Director, Office of Policy, Screening Coordination, DHS
- Peter Swire, C. William O'Neil Professor of Law, Moritz College of Law, The Ohio State University and Senior Fellow, Center for American Progress
- Janet Boodro, Senior Analyst, Office of the Chief Information Officer, DOJ

Thursday, July 17, 2008

9:00 to 11:00 am

1800 K Street, NW / B-1B conference center

To RSVP, please email bjaffe@csis.org by Thursday, July 10.

